Enriching Our Worship

Please note that in our liturgy when we refer to God we cannot adequately verbalize the magnitude and comprehensiveness of God's diversity and are always limited by our use of language. We acknowledge that although Jesus was born into history as a man, neither God the Father nor God the Holy Spirit were embodied with human sex. Although our language is often not all inclusive we believe God always is. God made human beings in God's own image with complexity and diversity. Thank you for sharing your diversity and complexity with us as we worship God together.

The Liturgy of the Word

When the Voluntary begins, please maintain prayerful silence

Voluntary: Joyful Bells

Jennifer Linn
Seth Clemens, piano

Opening Hymn: Holy Spirit, Ever Living

H511
Tune: Abbot's Leigh

*1 Holy Spirit, ever living
as the Church's very life;
Holy Spirit, ever striving through her in a ceaseless strife; Holy Spirit, ever forming in the Church the mind of Christ;
thee we praise with endless worship
for thy fruits and gifts unpriced.*

*2 Holy Spirit, ever working through the Church's ministry;
quickenings, strengthening and absolving,
setting captive sinners free;*

*Holy Spirit, ever binding
age to age, and soul to soul,
in a fellowship unending
thee we worship and extol.*

Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence may be kept.

Officiant and People together, all kneeling

*God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us
through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love
and serve only your will. Amen.*

The Officiant kneeling says

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

The Lessons

People sit for the reading of the lessons

Reader     A Lesson from First Kings

3:5-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon at Gibeon in a dream at night. God said, “Ask whatever you wish, and I’ll give it to you.”

Solomon responded, “You showed so much kindness to your servant my father David when he walked before you in truth, righteousness, and with a heart true to you. You’ve kept this great loyalty and kindness for him and have now given him a son to sit on his throne. And now, LORD my God, you have made me, your servant, king in my father David’s place. But I’m young and inexperienced. I know next to nothing. But I’m here, your servant, in the middle of the people you have chosen, a large population that can’t be numbered or counted due to its vast size. Please give your servant a discerning mind in order to govern your people and to distinguish good from evil, because no one is able to govern this important people of yours without your help.”

It pleased the LORD that Solomon had made this request. God said to him, “Because you have asked for this instead of requesting long life, wealth, or victory over your enemies—asking for discernment so as to acquire good judgment— I will now do just what you said. Look, I hereby give you a wise and understanding mind. There has been no one like you before now, nor will there be anyone like you afterward.

Lord God, your mighty hand,
Has done great works, surpassing all
That we can understand.*

*2. Your ways are ways of righteousness
And truth, eternal King;
Who then can fail to worship you,
Your praises fail to sing?*

*3. You only are the Holy One;
All nations will draw near Because your works have been revealed
And bow in holy fear.*

Reader    A Lesson from Romans

8:26-39

In the same way, the Spirit comes to help our weakness. We don't know what we should pray, but the Spirit himself pleads our case with unexpressed groans. The one who searches hearts knows how the Spirit thinks, because he pleads for the saints, consistent with God's will. We know that God works all things together for good for the ones who love God, for those who are called according to his purpose. We know this because God knew them in advance, and he decided in advance that they would be conformed to the image of his Son. That way his Son would be the first of many brothers and sisters. Those who God decided in advance would be conformed to his Son, he also called. Those whom he called, he also made righteous. Those whom he made righteous, he also glorified.

So what are we going to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He didn't spare his own Son but gave him up for us all. Won't he also freely give us all things with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's elect people? It is God who acquits them. Who is going to convict them? It is Christ Jesus who died, even more, who was raised, and who also is at God's right side. It is Christ Jesus who also pleads our case for us.

Who will separate us from Christ's love? Will we be separated by trouble, or distress, or harassment, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written,

*We are being put to death all day long for your sake.
We are treated like sheep for slaughter.*

But in all these things we win a sweeping victory through the one who loved us. I'm convinced that nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ Jesus our Lord: not death or life, not angels or rulers, not present things or future things, not powers or height or depth, or any other thing that is created.

Canticle 13: Benedictus es, Domine

to Tune: Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove (H510)

1. Glory to you, our people's God;
To you all praise is due;
Your holy Name shines forth in light;
We praise and honor you.

2. In temple's splendor, kingdom's power,
To you all praise is due;
Enthroned between the Cherubim,
We praise and honor you.

3. In heaven high and depths beneath,
To you all praise is due;
Father and Son and Spirit, Lord,
We praise and honor you.

He told another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and planted in his field. It’s the smallest of all seeds. But when it’s grown, it’s the largest of all vegetable plants. It becomes a tree so that the birds in the sky come and nest in its branches.”

He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in a bushel of wheat flour until the yeast had worked its way through all the dough.”

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure that somebody hid in a field, which someone else found and covered up. Full of joy, the finder sold everything and bought that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. When he found one very precious pearl, he went and sold all that he owned and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that people threw into the lake and gathered all kinds of fish. When it was full, they pulled it to the shore, where they sat down and put the good fish together into containers. But the bad fish they threw away. That’s the way it will be at the end of the present age. The angels will go out and separate the evil people from the righteous people, and will throw the evil ones into a burning furnace. People there will be weeping and grinding their teeth.

“Have you understood all these things?” Jesus asked.

They said to him, “Yes.”

Then he said to them, “Therefore, every legal expert who has been trained as a disciple for the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings old and new things out of their treasure chest.”

Closing Hymn: "Thy Kingdom Come!" on Bended Knee H615
Tune: St. Flavian

*1 "Thy kingdom come!" on bended knee
the passing ages pray;
and faithful souls have yearned to see
on earth that kingdom's day.*

*2 But the slow watches of the night
not less to God belong;
and for the everlasting right
the silent stars are strong.*

*3 And lo, already on the hills
the flags of dawn appear;
gird up your loins, ye prophet souls,
proclaim the day is near:*

*4 the day to whose clear shining light
all wrong shall stand revealed, when justice shall be throned in might,
and every hurt be healed;*

*5 when knowledge, hand in hand with peace,
shall walk the earth abroad;
the day of perfect righteousness,
the promised day of God.*

Celebrating 150 years of ministry

1875 - 2025

Clifton West Southern (1883-1886)

Clifton was one of the first burial records for Church of the Ascension. His parents Fanny West and Chris Southern were very active at Ascension and will be remembered in a future bulletin.

When Clifton's parents decided their farm in Lakewood would become a residential development, they chose to have two streets memorialize their son, Clifton Road and West Clifton.

Interestingly, Clifton's grandparents, John and Frances West, who were parishioners at Ascension, had a beautiful farm outside of present-day Lakewood. It was described as so beautiful that it was more of a park than a farm and this is how West Park's name originated.

Farm Suppers at Bellwether Farm

To build and deepen relationships in the diocese and with the Bishop and Bishop's staff, Bishop Anne is inviting everyone in the diocese to join her in participating in Listening Sessions this summer. We will be able to have facilitated discussions and table conversations about the vision for the diocese and how the Bishop and her staff can support congregations in living out their missions. We will take the information we learn from these sessions and use it for discussion at Diocesan Convention in November. A list of the listening sessions is available on the diocesan website.
